I've Got That Cub Scout Spirit

Tune: Down in My Heart

[Point to each part of the body as you sing]

I've got that Cub Scout spirit up in my head
Up in my head, Up in my head.

I've got that Cub Scout spirit up in my head
Up in my head to stay.

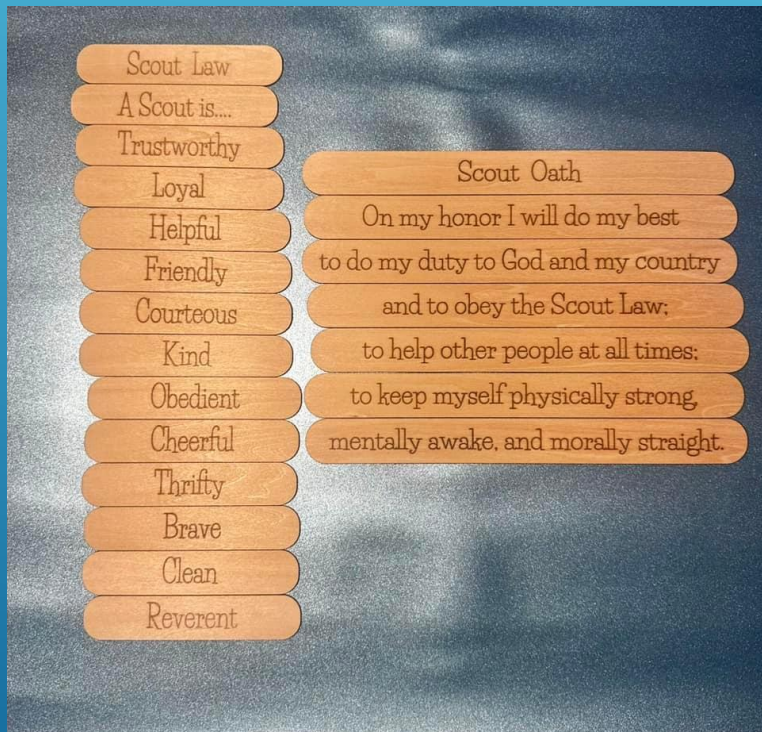

I've got that Cub Scout spirit deep in my heart
Deep in my heart, deep in my heart
I've got that Cub Scout spirit deep in my heart
Deep in my heart to stay.

I've got that Cub Scout spirit down in my feet
Down in my feet, down in my feet.
I've got that Cub Scout spirit down in my feet,
Down in my feet to stay.

I've got that Cub Scout spirit up in my head
Deep in my heart, down in my feet
I've got that Cub Scout spirit all over me
All over me to stay!

The Scout Oath

On my honor

You are stating your promise backed by your own personal worth.

I will do my best

Only you know what your best truly is. Do not measure yourself against the accomplishments or laziness of peers - strive to surpass your own high standards and be proud when you know you've put in your best effort.

To do my duty to God

Your duty to God is to follow the teachings of your religious leaders always.

and my country

Every citizen has responsibilities to understand, defend, and improve his community. Duties include serving in public office, voting, protecting natural resources, and learning about our government system.

and to obey the Scout Law;

You are promising to follow these twelve points, not only in scouting, but in all areas of your life. You will use the Law as a compass to guide your decisions and actions.

To help other people at all times;

You will look for opportunities to help and will not pass someone by that you are capable of aiding. You will use your skills to assist anyone you meet and seek additional help if needed.

To keep myself physically strong,

You will nurture and protect your body, eating healthy food, exercising, getting rest, and avoiding harmful habits like drugs, tobacco, and alcohol. Maintaining your physical strength is required to do your best and fulfill the other points of this promise.

mentally awake,

You will exercise your mind by doing your best in school. You will explore your world and try to continually learn and then share your knowledge with others.

and morally straight.

You will maintain honest and open relationships with others. You will hold yourself to a high moral standard and be clean in your speech and actions while being faithful to your religious beliefs.

Other Bobcat Ideas

Katrina Marie Aaby, Pack 81, Billings, Montana

Popsicle Stick Puzzles- Write each piece of the Oath and Law on individual popsicle sticks and have Scouts try to line them up in the correct order. If making multiple sets use different colored markers so you can easily tell which stick belongs to each set.

Mega Blocks Tower- Write each piece of the Oath and Law on Mega Blocks/Legos (or masking tape on blocks) and have Scouts build a tower in the correct order.

Emoji Match- Especially great for young Scouts who don't read yet, use note cards or a poster with emojis that represent each part of the Oath and Law. They will learn to associate the picture with the word and have it memorized in no time.

Pictionary- Write each part of the Scout Law on a piece of paper and place it into a hat/bucket. Have each Scout choose a piece of paper and then draw what that word means to them. After Scouts are finished, have them show their drawing to the Den one at a time and see if the Scouts can guess which word they chose. This is a fun activity to re-do every year to see how their perspective changes for different parts of the Law.

Bobcat Relay- Scouts start at 1 end of the room and a Leader or Parent is at the other. Scouts run/walk/dance/hop etc. one at a time to the Leader. Depending on your group size this can be done as teams or individually. Roll a dice to have them answer their "quiz question" 1) Say the Scout Oath 2) Say the Scout Law 3) Cub Scout Motto 4) Cub Scout Sign 5) Cub Scout Handshake 6) Cub Scout Salute. If they answer correctly they can move back to the other end of the room. If they can't get the answer, have them roll again or give them hints. (Remember the age of Scouts with this game. Tigers may need extra hints where AOLs should know every answer)

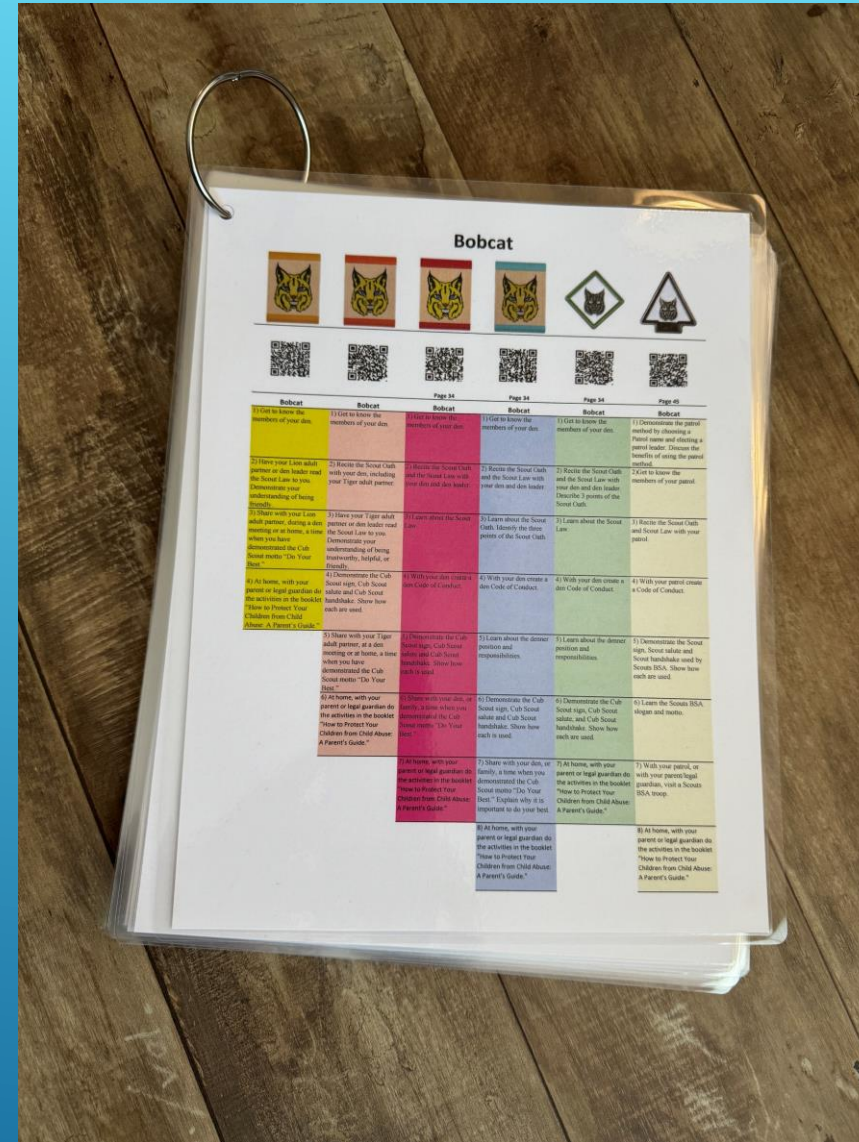

Additional variation: AOL can answer with differences between Cub Scouts and Scouts BSA.
